HEALTH AND SAFETY

POLICY ON PORTABLE ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES

All portable electrical are PAT tested by a qualified electrician as part of the two yearly survey. Adhesive labels on each piece of equipment should give the date the next test is due by.

Any electrical equipment brought on to the Church premises should be P.A.T. tested.

Electrical equipment brought on to the Church premises by individuals for their own use (e.g. as part of a service) should only be used by themselves at their own risk.
