

Formal Consultation under Part 4.5 of the Faculty Jurisdiction Rules 2019 - Pattingham: St Chad (620122) ref 2022-076400

25th June 2026

Please find below my comments on behalf of the local planning authority for the following case, Pattingham, St. Chad (2022-076400).

Having looked at the information provided with regard to the proposed kitchen area and heating etc. I do not note any issues of objection from a local authority perspective. I am therefore happy for this to be considered by the DAC and I defer to their decision.

All of the proposed works are internal except for the addition of a single black cast iron grill on the west wall of the outer north aisle. This is a minor change to the external appearance and is considered de-minimis and will therefore not require planning permission.

Best wishes
